

The skylark's song is a mixture of "get off my land" and "get in my bed" (above). Meadow pipits often start singing soon after the skylarks (below left). The view from Dunkery Beacon across Exmoor National Park is spectacular in the early morning (below right).

